

Q&A for VoiceXML Forum Members

Q1: Is The VoiceXML Forum planning a formal press release or other media outreach announcing the new shift in focus?

A1: No, The VoiceXML Forum will not be issuing a formal press release or any formal statement to the media. We will, however, respond to any media or member inquiries.

Q2: How long will complimentary memberships be offered?

A2: The VoiceXML Forum will be giving all members in good standing a complimentary membership for a 12 month period starting from the 2014 renewal anniversary date of each member, continued annually until further notice.

Q3: Will The VoiceXML Forum be accepting payments for 2014 membership dues?

A3: No. The VoiceXML Forum is providing its existing members with a complimentary membership.

Q4: Will The VoiceXML Forum continue to accept new memberships?

A4: Yes, but prospective new members should understand there has been a shift in The VoiceXML Forum's focus. Each current member of The VoiceXML Forum will maintain its present membership level.

Q5: Is The VoiceXML Forum closing down?

A5: Absolutely not, The VoiceXML Forum will continue to operate in pursuit of its revised focus.

Q6: Can we continue using The VoiceXML Forum brand and certification marks in our collateral, industry events and other venues?

A6: Yes.

Q7: How does this change impact the Forum's Platform Certification Program?

A7: It is not intended to impact the Forum's certification program. All certifications awarded for platforms remain valid and can continue to be used.

Q8: Is The VoiceXML Forum planning any new activity?

A8: Not at this time. However, marketing activities will continue in pursuit of the revised focus of the organization.

Q9: Will The VoiceXML Forum website continue to be kept current?

A9: Yes.

Q10: Does The VoiceXML Forum intend to merge with any other organization?

A10: The Forum has no such plans at this time.

Q11: What if I have more questions?

A11: ISTO will address any inquires or questions. Please contact: Michelle Hunt (michelle.hunt@ieee-isto.org or +1.732.981.3434)